

ABOUT THE INCLUSION DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

The Inclusion Development Programme (IDP) is part of the Government's strategy for children with special educational needs (SEN), outlined in Removing Barriers to Achievement (DfES/0117/2004).

The IDP is a suite of materials aimed to support teachers, teaching assistants (TAs) and trainee teachers to increase their knowledge and skills in working with children and young people with a range of SEN, so that their quality first teaching is even more effective.

The IDP includes essential guidance for headteachers and leadership teams so that it can be viewed in the context of other whole-school priorities.

Phase 1 Materials:

- Inclusion Development Programme, Primary/Secondary: Dyslexia and speech, language and communication needs (00070-2008DVD-EN)

Phase 2 Materials:

- Inclusion Development Programme, Primary/Secondary: Supporting pupils on the autism (00041-2009DVD-EN)

N.B. Both of these resources can be found in the Inclusion area at www.standards.dcsf.gov.uk/nationalstrategies/inclusion/sen/idp

Phase 3 Materials:

- Expected 2010 "Social, Emotional, Behavioural Difficulties"

The IDP has a wealth of excellent materials that supports the development of confidence, knowledge and skills of staff on a range of needs – beyond dyslexia, speech, language and communication and autism spectrum, so has the potential to drive school improvement on issues that affect all learners

- Community cohesion
- Personalising learning
- Raising achievement
- Narrowing the gap
